

I want to keep the no-call list in effect. I feel it is my right to choose whether or not I want to be disturbed by telemarketers. It is not the right of the telemarketers to decide this for me. (You don't see them offering to pay my phone bill for me, do you?!) The no-call list should be available to all people nationwide and should be permanent.